Sydney, May 2018

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Entering its eighth year, the AHRI Inclusion & Diversity Conference showcases leading practices in diversity and inclusion within Australia. It also provides a forum for I&D specialists, and HR professionals, to exchange perspectives and initiatives relating to best practice.

The conference program is developed through consultation with leading experts in the field of inclusion and diversity management and this ensures there is a variety of presentations from specialists in this field. AHRI hosts an Inclusion and Diversity Reference Panel who provide strategic advice with respect to I&D practice, as well as to shape the focus of this Conference. The 2017 conference attracted over 250 attendees.
